

Waterlife® Fish Disease Diagnosis - Ponds

Please note: This is only intended as a quick guide. Please refer to your retailer for more advice

VELVET ("OODINIUM")
(fine dusting of golden - grey spots over fins and body)
Use Waterlife MEDIZIN P

FUNGUS
(grey - white tufts or growths)
Use Waterlife MEDIZIN P

ARGULUS (FISH LOUSE)
(flattened, oval parasite attached to body surface)
Use Waterlife PARAZIN P

ANCHOR WORM (LERNAEA)
(worm - like, with forked "tail" giving overall "Y" or "T" shape)
Use Waterlife PARAZIN P

SKIN IRRITATION
(protozoa or skin flukes)
(areas of grey - white patchy skin +/- excess mucus production; fish flicks or rubs against objects)
Use Waterlife MEDIZIN P and then 10 days later with STERAZIN P

FIN HAEMORRHAGING
red streaks on fins +/- on body
Environmental:
check ammonia and nitrite levels with Waterlife TEST KITS
Use Waterlife MYXAZIN P

FIN ROT
(split or frayed fins)
Use Waterlife MYXAZIN P

ULCERS, SORES, AND WOUNDS
(reddened areas, sometimes deeply pitted with white necrotic tissue)
Use Waterlife MYXAZIN P

INTESTINAL WORMS,
(emaciation, "hollow - belly" +/- red worms from vent)
Use Waterlife STERAZIN P

WHITE SPOT
(small white spots, up to 1 mm diameter, over body and fins, +/- increased gill beat. Fish flicks or rubs against objects)
Use Waterlife MEDIZIN P

DROPSY, (bacterial)
(pineapple scales)
Use Waterlife MYXAZIN P at early stage of disease

GILL FLUKES,
(inflamed gills +/- mucus trailing from gills; increased /gill rate)
Use Waterlife STERAZIN P

CLOUDY EYE(S), BULGING EYE(S)
Use Waterlife MYXAZIN P for bacterial infection and Waterlife VITAZIN to boost vitamins in food

CARP POX
(largish, shiny white growths)
- viral - no cure - Waterlife MYXAZIN P may help

MOUTH FUNGUS
(eroded mouth, whitish fungus- like growths)
Use Waterlife MYXAZIN P

